

Consultant Neurologist at Kingdom Hospital, Riyadh

1. Context

General: Kingdom Hospital, located in the northern part of Riyadh, the capital city of Saudi Arabia, is one of Saudi Arabia's latest and most extensively equipped private hospitals. It is one of the remarkable achievements of HRH Prince Al Waleed Bin Talal Al Saud, who is always keen to support the Saudi economy. Kingdom Hospital was established in Northern Riyadh in 2000 as a premium healthcare provider for the region Kingdom Hospital.

Facility: The hospital operates as a modern high quality hospital with 126 bed facility of which 72 beds are fully operational. The hospital features an inpatient surgical service with five operating theatres, a day surgery unit, delivery suites, 24-hour emergency services, and critical care for adults (ICU) and neonates (NICU), outpatient clinical services, pharmacy outlet and various ancillary services. Kingdom Hospital provides all types of consultations and therapeutic services, utilizing state-of-the-art equipment. Kingdom Hospital is comprised of many specialized medical departments including but not limited to Pediatrics, Internal Medicine, Obstetrics & Gynecology, Surgery, not to mention the Pain Management Center and a Rehabilitation and Physiotherapy Unit, which is the first private Rehabilitation Center in Riyadh. The Emergency Room and Intensive Care Units in KH are the first units to run in line with the standards of the American

Website: <http://www.khccgroup.com/>

2. Job Content:

Title: Consultant Neurology

Tasks and Responsibilities: To diagnose and treat nervous system disorders and diseases by administering a variety of tests, examining blood tests or studying X-rays of the brain or spine to define the nature of the problem. The common neurological diseases that need to be treated are: Headache disorders and migraine; Epilepsy or seizure; Sleeping disorders; Encephalitis (infection of the brain); Spinal cord disorders; Peripheral nerve disorders; Encephalopathy (brain disease such as damage). To prescribe medication and drugs. If needed to refer the patient to a colleague -specialist for additional care.

Reporting to: Head of department : doctor Ahmad Ayman Labban, M.D.

Management of: NA

Colleagues: The division of Neurology at Kingdom Hospital-Consulting Clinics is known for its high standards and competence due to its highly skilled selected consultants.

3. Profile

Education: MD, Specialist Neurology.

Diploma obtained by a respected Medical School in North America or West and South Europe (Austria/Belgium/Denmark/Finland/ France/ Germany/ Ireland/Luxemburg/The Netherlands/United Kingdom / Greece/ Italy/Spain/ Portugal).

Memberships: Canadian/ American/European/Arab Board certification is preferred and can compensate primary medical education in a non-Western medical School.

Experience: at least 3 years practical experience after post-graduation within the specialty neurology

Languages: English and Arabic

Age: max 60Years

Nationality: KSA, Jordan, Lebanese, Syrian

Religion: all except Jewish, Shiitisch

Gender: male and female

4. Offer

Salary range: negotiable, starting from 500.000 Sar (all inclusive) for specialists that are finishing their fellowship in a subspecialty range; this will certainly go up with experience.

Extra-legal benefits: Free Housing, 1 free flight to the country of origin/y, 38 days Holidays (30 days of leave plus 4 days Hajj holiday , 3 days Ramadan holiday and one National day) and 7 days Education Leave, Hospital Insurance..

Contract Type: 1 year contract, yearly renewable

General:

5. Necessary Documents of Candidate:

- Detailed CV
- Education Certificates (Diplomas and Transcript of Records)
- Copy registered diploma
- Medical Board Registration/Certificate; Residency Training, Specialization or Fellowship Certificates
- Certificates of Employment from previous to present employers /Reference Letter
- Copy of passport
- Recent Photo
- Stamp Saudi Embassy country of origin

6. Remarks